By supporting bōkka BOTÁNICA, you are choosing eco-friendly, clean, cruelty-free, vegan and color protecting haircare produced in the USA. Our products make a difference for stylists, clients, animals and of course, Mother Earth!

COLORLOKK COMPLEX

Each formula contains COLORLOKK COMPLEX, a powerful blend of 3 key plant derived ingredients that significantly reduce hair color fading, while protecting against free radicals and UV damage on color treated, chemically treated or natural hair types.

CLEAN BEAUTY

Our products are mindfully created and produced without any suspected or potentially harmful ingredients. We make a conscious effort to not only formulate with ethically and sustainably sourced raw materials, but also continually monitor an ever-changing list of controversial ingredients. Clean Beauty is a perfect balance between science and nature, and we strive to achieve this every day by offering amazing products with the health of our bodies and the environment in mind.
